

Christian Rupp
Federal Executive Secretary
Austrian Federal Government

Mr. Christian RUPP was appointed as the Federal Executive Secretary for the eGovernment initiative of the Austrian Federal Government in spring 2003. Since autumn 2005 he acts as the spokesperson of the Federal Platform "Digital:Austria", which coordinates the ICT and eGovernment activities for the Austrian Government within and outside the Republic of Austria. As an expert in new media and information management as well as eGovernance Mr. Rupp was involved in various committees of the European Commission, OECD, Worldbank and United Nations In the last twenty years. Before his appointment in the Austrian Federal Chancellery he was beside others the eBusiness representative of the Austrian Federal Chamber of Commerce.