

Christoph Raab
Chairman
European Security Round Table

Christoph Raab has received his degree in Economics at the University of Trier. He holds a Masters degree from the College of Europe (Natolin) and is a trained journalist. He has worked for the Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen on media projects in Poland. From 2002 to 2005, he was Personal Assistant to Karl von Wogau, MEP, in the European Parliament. In this period, he was sherpa in the working groups on establishing the European Security Research Program. In November 2005, he has assumed the management of COPURA, an event management company specialised in security and defence activities. Since 2009 he is additionally Chairman of the European Security Round Table. (ESRT), leading Brussels based policy forum for Security and Defence matters