

Jon Shamah
Consultant
EJ Consultants

Jon Shamah is a graduate of Southampton University, specialising in Aeronautics & Astronautics.

A Chartered Information Technology Professional, and a recognised international digital Identity & Trust Subject Matter Expert, he specialises in maximising the technology and operational value chain of very large scale eID schemes, critical national infrastructures and national programmes.

Jon was the recipient of the 2009 EEMA Fellowship Award for Services to European e-identity, and is currently the Vice-Chairman of EEMA. He is a frequent public speaker on issues surrounding identity and Trust.

Jon was a long-term consultant on eID issues to the Nordic Banking and Payments Consortium, NETS, and contributes to European Programs such as SSEDIC, STORK2.0, ECIM, CloudforEurope and FutureID.

In addition, Jon is former co-chairman of ITU-T,SG17,Joint Coordination for Identity and is a member of the Advisory Board of TDL ("Trust In Digital Life").