

Linda Strick
Fraunhofer-Institute FOKUS

Linda Strick has been with the Fraunhofer-Institute FOKUS in Berlin, Germany, since 1987. She works in the application domain public innovation and has long experience in the area of eGovernment. Her main areas of work are: Cloud Computing, distributed systems, telecommunications, Service Oriented Architectures and Cloud Certification. She has been working with national and international projects, in standardization organizations and published several papers, amongst other Cloud Computing for the public sector (2010). Since June 2013 she is coordinator of the Cloud for Europe project funded by the European Commission under its 7th Framework Programme.