

Martin Mühleck
Trust & Security Unit, DG Connect
European Commission.

Martin Mühleck is officer of the Trust and Security Unit in DG Connect of the European Commission. For the last four years, he is involved in EC policies in the field of cybersecurity and online privacy. In addition to his policy activities, the formulation and implementation of related EU research & development programmes (FP7 and Horizon) are part of his responsibilities.

After his studies in Berlin, Stirling, Lublin and at the College of Europe (Natolin), he worked for a Brussels-based consultancy and a European governmental association, before joining the European Commission in 2008.

